The 1958 Mesa

FREDERICKSBURG HIGH SCHOOL

FREDERICKSBURG, TEXAS

Foreword

The 1958 edition of The Mesa has been published with one objective: to capture a year of Student Happiness between its covers. While we know that life at Fredericksburg High School is a multitude of realities which are too intangible to be related in black and white, perhaps in some small way we can preserve the friendships which we all hold so dearly. If this book will serve to bridge the past and bring to mind the priceless memories of joy and pleasures of the year just gone, it will have served its purpose.

With these thoughts, we proudly present to you, the students, your 1958 Mesa.

THE MESA STAFF

As the bell rings on that first day of school, many happy students pour once again into the building. From that moment on until school closes, the students in their classes, at their games, and in their daily lives make FHS. The faculty adds much to STUDENT HAPPINESS.

Junior Class

Junior class officers, Bonnie Hein, treasurer; Shelby Hitchcock, president; Elizabeth Sieckmann, secretary; Charles Haas, vice-president, have fun decorating the throne for Sweetheart's Party on Valentine.

The zealous Junior Class did a fine job decorating for the annual Sweetheart's Party. With the help of their sponsors, Miss Gold, Mrs. Goodin, and Mr. Haas, the class made the Junior-Senior Prom an enjoyable occasion. Decorations carried out the theme, "Deep Purple."

Students enjoy dancing at Sweetheart's Party.

Junior boys help at pep rally.

Teachers and friends help plan for annual party.

Curtis Klett and Robert Weed take part in Old English Ballad.

Members of the Junior Class display their many talents on Halloween night as they take part in the Campus Capers given by the clubs of FHS.

Senior Class Favorites

Virginia Wunderlich and Alfredo Lopez radiate a warm sense of humor which is reflected from the friendly glow of the fire.

Senior Class

Senior class officers take time out from their busy schedule to complete poster for senior trip bus. STANDING: Samuel Baethge, president; Barry McHalek, vice-president. KNEELING: Julia Mazine, treasurer; Barbara Kott, secretary.

The proud senior class spends its time planning for the future and attending the many functions at FHS. Under the sponsorship of Miss Quillian, Mrs. Gold, Mr. Templeton, and Miss Mueller, the class planned its long-awaited Senior trip.

These students were found participating in assemblies, parades, and just plain nonsense.

Junior - Senior Prom

Making the 1958 Junior-Senior Prom one of the best, the chairman of the committies worked faithfully. Those serving as chairman were Delia Davidson, Maynett Cox, Gloria Klein, Elizabeth Sieckmann, Bernice Houy, Kay Evers, and Charles Haas.

Patsy Danz reads the stars to foretell the future of the Seniors.

Carrying out the theme, Tyra Ann Cox and Janie Evers tap dance to the melody of "Cherry Pink and Apple Blossom White."

Helping to make the Prom a success were the faculty members and roommothers of the Junior Class. They are LEFT TO RIGHT: Mr. and Mrs. Haas, Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, Miss Gold, Mrs. Everett, Mrs. Davidson and Mrs. Goodin.

The highlight of the evening was signing autographs which enabled the students to remember their happy time at the 1958 Junior-Senior Prom.

FHS

As the final note of the band is played on commencement night, the Seniors of '58 jubilantly dash from the gym to take their new positions as graduates of an unforgettable school, ready to face their destinies confidently, with lasting smiles arising from the STUDENT HAPPINESS of FHS.

Looking to the future, the Seniors are waiting to take their place in the business world.

On the following pages are advertisers who are interested in FHS students and their trade.

They repair your car and take your pictures.

They assist you in banking, provide you good movies, and help you select the right clothes for the occasion.

They are the people who make up the business section of town.
